Has your baby the vitality to resist the many forms of summer illness?

Strength must be stored by sleep and comfort

More babies fall ill in summer, according to physicians, than in all the rest of the year. Every ounce of their energy must be guarded if infants are to keep well and gain. Fevers, rashes, jaundice, dyspepsia, crying, and nervousness—all these things which lessen strength—must be prevented. Ways of doing this are described below.

Your Doctor is Now That a Mother

From a letter to a doctor:
"Try the Baby Care when you go on vacation." "You must qualify."

Millions of Happy Babies

If it is not expensive and you can use it guaranteed all over the tender body, ensuring it gently under the arms-pits, behind the ears and in all the folds and creases. The beautiful powder puts the skin to ease. Your gentle rubbing soothes the nerves. Baby is ready to fall asleep the minute it is back in the crib.

Four reasons why physicians prefer Johnson's

- 1—It is made by Johnson & Johnson—makers of Band-Aid, Absorbent Cotton and 400 other articles for the medical profession.
- 2—In their practice Johnson's Baby Powder proves more cooling and soothing.
- 3—It is first suggested by a noted skin specialist especially for use on tender baby skin.
- 4—Johnson's Baby Powder does not clog the pores or cover the skin with a cheap, moisture-proof film.

How the Kiddies love them! —McCormick's Biscuit Basket

"GIVE me a biscuit, Mother! I want another, Mother! Give me that one! I want two! three! more! please!" Can't you just hear the kiddies clausuring, begging, insisting around a McCormick Biscuit Basket?

Everyone knows what the name "McCormick" stands for in biscuits. The snowy whiteness of our great bakeries, and the skill and care of our bakers are a part of the purity, the fine texture, the high food value of these choice tit-bits of the baker's art in the McCormick's Biscuit Basket.

Give them to the kiddies. Growing children need them. Not forgetting that grown-ups, too, can feast at any time upon the treasure-trove in a McCormick Biscuit Basket.

And you can buy any one of the twelve varieties by the pound. Ask your grocer.
